Cyprus position paper: Russia Ukraine conflict

After the trembling series of agreements 2014-2015 between The two former soviet union the disputant Russia and Ukraine and France and Germany, the according has been disturbed and the situation start to be rages February 24 2022 and the two country are once again in conflict.

Russian President Vladimir Putin launched an attack on Ukraine on 24 February 2022 with explosions heard across the country and its foreign minister warning a “full-scale invasion”is underway.

In response to this new old conflict republic of cyprus condemns attack on Ukraine and consider it a flagrant violation to the sovereignty of Ukraine.

"any actions which violate the sovereignty and territorial integrity of an independent country" and consider the invasion a war crime and a fallout and a huge break to all charters of the United Nations, and a violation of democracy, freedom, and all humanitarian and political covenants, and a demolition of the an inheritance of a people and a state, and the corruption of infrastructure, institutions, and a system that took many years to build.

"It is with great disappointment that we are witnessing the violation of international law"

We are following developments with grave concern over the escalation of military operations and we are working with the european union to discuss harsher sanction to Russia and we will set the harshest package of sanctions we have ever implemented”.

We believe that the conflict in Ukraine can be resolved through dialogue rather than force and we will use our position as european member and closure to Russia to make effort and use intense diplomacy to defend Ukraine independence and to stop the war.
